

PennyPAC focuses on everyday issues that affect all Americans. As a non-partisan PAC, we contribute to candidates whose ideas on the issues of Education, Energy, Health Care, Homeland Security, and Economic Development are fresh, innovative, and forward thinking. In addition to supporting candidates, we are committed to cultivating the next generation of political minds by educating them on the political process.

By contributing today you are making a statement...I am concerned about education, energy, healthcare, homeland security, and economic development and I want to be interactive!

Find your voice in politics, help PennyPAC and contribute today!
